

I am deeply concerned about the consolidation of companies in the media industry, which is already narrowing and homogenizing news and entertainment style and content dangerously. A tightly controlled media industry compromises American education, promotes our dangerous narcissism, and carries the seeds of fascism--all for the profits of these few giant companies. Please vote on June 2 to broaden, not narrow, media ownership, in defense of our Constitution.